Presidents' Message

Jane Bradley and Judy Steele

As part of our Co-President duties for AAUW, this year we are acting as chairpersons for our local IBC - Interbranch Council--which includes the nearby branches of Half Moon Bay, Mid-Peninsula, North Peninsula, Pacifica, and San Francisco. As Co-Presidents, we notify other IBC branches of quarterly and specific group meetings and attend those meetings.

Judy recently attended a special lunch meeting at which Kim Churches, National CEO, spoke. Kim is widely recognized for her success at working collaboratively in education as well as on capacity-building among grassroots groups and national and international nonprofits. She also serves on the Board of the Leadership Conference on Civil & Human Rights and is a member of the International Women's Forum of Washington, D.C., and the Association of Fundraising Professionals.

With her pragmatic approach, Kim is a dynamic and popular speaker, emphasizing AAUW's strategic vision which concentrates on the three critical areas where we can make the biggest difference in gender equity: education and training, economic security, and leadership. She emphasized that AAUW is working hard to make us "distinct and differentiated" from other women's advocacy groups by focusing specifically on mission impact.

Kim reminded us of the recently developed on-line Work Smart Program, for which National received a $500,000 grant from Coca-Cola to train 100,000 women in salary negotiations by August 31, 2019. As of the luncheon date (Aug. 22nd), they had already achieved 90,000 which could mean more funders looking to AAUW for mission impact.

Kim also spoke about all of our on-going struggles to recruit new and younger AAUW members. National is trying some new models/ideas including a new Equity Network to be tested this fall, that will complement AAUW, but be for donations rather than memberships. She noted that younger women are more interested in social media groups with gender equity emphasis rather than "joining their mother's or grandmother's" clubs.

5-Star Recognition Program

Kim Churches also spoke of a related topic, AAUW National fund-raising model, which currently has "extraordinary resources" in restricted endowments (they give out more than $4 million/year to fund women's educational futures!). However, they desperately need more in their much smaller unrestricted funds "to support their strategic plan priorities" - i.e. to be able to respond in a more timely manner to relevant and newsworthy equity issues (such as the many recent workplace sexual harassment reports). In that regard, National will soon be launching a new "5 Star Recognition Program" which will have 5 major focus areas: Advancement, Communications & External Relations, Programs, Public Policy & Research, and Governance & Stability". National feels that with all levels of AAUW working together on these common goals that focus on mission, new membership will follow. For more information, go to the AAUW homepage and search 'Five Star'.

Over the years, we have met leaders from many of our county's non-profit organizations. The Peninsula Humane Society is one that has had an impact on many of us and will be the subject of our October meeting.

Buffy Martin Tarbox, Communications Manager of the Peninsula Humane Society and SPCA, will tell us about her organization and how it affects us and our pets. The meeting is on Tuesday, October 8th at 10:30 am, at the home of Diane. The meeting is open to all AAUW members and guests.

Trolley Tour of Cypress Lawn

To celebrate the beginning of our next season of exciting programs we start out with a trolley tour through Cypress Lawn in Colma. Cypress Lawn will donate $20.00 per person to AAUW to take this docent-led excursion to their magnificent grounds, historic mausoleums, stained glass and statuary. The trolley seats 24 persons and has heat and/or air conditioning! Refreshments will be served and one lucky participant will win the raffle prize. We encourage you to bring a friend.

This tour is on Sat. Nov. 2nd, at noon. If interested, please contact Gerhild Klein by October 15th.

Asian Art Museum: Silk Room

On November 9, at 1:00 pm, we will have the pleasure to hear from a Docent of the Asian Art Museum about the contents of their Silk Room.

Travel the ancient routes that provided goods, technologies, and ideas to countries and cultures from the Mediterranean to the Pacific. Discover the transformations that resulted from the complex exchanges between East and West.

Before jet planes and trucks, militia, merchants, monks and pilgrims spent months, even years, traveling over perilous land routes to carry luxury goods and new ideas thousands of miles. Commodities such as silk, porcelain, paper, tea, jade, amber, gunpowder and spices were carried across land and sea routes known as the Silk Road. Religions and ideas, technologies and innovations also spread along these trade routes.

Come discover the complexity of the exchanges and variety of cultures transformed as a result of goods, knowledge and techniques transmitted between East and West. Join us at the SMCCD Board Room, 3401 CSM Dr, San Mateo.

Prospective Members

Come Be Our Guest

Maureen Buchner, Mary Ann McKay

We all joined AAUW because of its mission which advances equity for women and girls through advocacy, education, and research, but also for the many interest sections that our Branch has to offer. Our members enjoy Book Groups, Bridge, California Fact and Legend, Foreign Affairs, Hiking, Public Policy, and our various dining groups, among many others.

If you have friends who have similar interests why not invite them to attend the Tech Trek and Prospective Member Brunch to learn about our mission and various interest sections? If you would like to invite a guest, merely fill out the reservation form found in this Bay Leaves. There is no charge for your guests. The Brunch is at the College Heights Church, 1150 W. Hillsdale Blvd. San Mateo, 94403, beginning at 11:30 am. If your guests decide to join AAUW the only requirement is a degree from an accredited college, including AA degrees from community colleges. Let's make 2019-2020 a banner year for membership recruitment.

Tech Trek

Join us on Saturday, October 19th, at College Heights Church for our annual Tech Trek Brunch. We look forward to meeting our 8 campers from the 2019 STEM camp at Stanford.

Who are these students? They are a fabulous group of 13 year-olds from our 4 district middle schools. We will hear about their experiences living in a college dorm for a week, some hilarious, some inspirational.

We also sponsored a college student to attend the National Conference for College Women Student Leaders (NCCWSL) meeting in Washington, D.C. in June. She has also been invited to report on her experiences at their national meeting.

Our guest speaker, Henrietta Williams, is a member who joined our branch in 2019. She will share her path to higher education and her current assignment with the San Mateo County Health care system. Dr. Williams, originally from Kentucky, has a doctorate in public health education. If you have questions, please call Maureen Buchner.
